Title of Document: Accessible Transportation Vancouver

Overview: This document contains information about accessible transportation, including public transportation, in Vancouver.

Public Transportation: Translink (Bus, SkyTrain, SeaBus & West Coast Express)
Ph: 604-953-3333 for route info
<https://new.translink.ca/> for the online trip planner.
All major bus routes are now accessible. Transit coverage across the city is extensive. Includes SkyTrain access to the airport.

HandyDART:
Ph: 604-575-6600
<http://www.translink.ca/en/Rider-Guide/Accessible-Transit/HandyDART.aspx>
HandyDART is part of the larger public transit system. It is a door-to-door service for those unable to access conventional transit services. Rides can now be booked up to seven days in advance. You must pre-register, and provide a doctor's note.

Taxis: Kimber Cabs
248 - 2633 Viking Way
Richmond, BC V6V 3B6
Ph: 604 488-8888
admin@kimbercabs.com
<http://www.kimbercabs.com/>
Based in Richmond, all vehicles can accommodate a power chair. Service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Specializes in airport pickups; special tours can be arranged.

Most taxi companies have accessible cabs. Still, it may be wise to pre-book your ride as these cabs do not service those with disabilities exclusively.
