

Title of Document:

List of Home Support Agencies in BC.

Overview:

This document contains a listing of Home Support Agencies in BC. It is not an exhaustive list but will give you a place to start when looking for care. If you don't see an agency listed for your community, search online for Home Support Agencies or Homecare for your community. You can also do a search on Support Worker Central, listed at the end of this document.

Make sure to check with your local health authority to see if you qualify for publicly funded services as private care is expensive.
